

"Great Lakes Basin" Sign Design Contest

The Lake Michigan Coastal Program will conduct a public design contest for a "Welcome to the Lake Michigan Basin" sign to be posted along major roadways.

- The sign will be highway standard size (width = 48 inches, height = 32 inches).
- Designs should be flexible, leaving room for any logos that must be incorporated into the sign.
- You may use any color(s) you like for your design, but please keep readability in mind when choosing colors and design.

Finalists will be selected, and the public will cast votes for their favorites. Photo-copies of this entry form will be accepted. Template for the design contest is on the back of this sheet.

Contest entries must be postmarked by March 10, 2006.

Mail your entry to:

Lake Michigan Coastal Program

You may also email it to coastal@dnr.IN.gov in .jpeg or .jpg format only.

Note: The DNR reserves the right to:

- Modify, any design(s) as necessary.
- Use any design(s) in whole or in part for the purpose of creating this sign and other promotional items.
- All entries are the property of the Indiana Department of Natural Resources and will not be returned.
